Peace Lutheran Youth Activities Behavioral Covenant 2018-2019

Our Baptismal Covenant calls us to live among God's faithful people, hear God's Word, and share in the Lord's Supper, to proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed, to serve all people, following the example of our Lord Jesus and to work for justice and peace. Our youth group programming provides opportunities to live into your baptismal covenant, grow in faith, and build community with other youth. In order for youth group to be a safe and healthy place, there are a few expectations while you are participating in youth programming.

Thus, I commit to the following:

- I will respect other people's stuff. I will not go through or touch another's possessions without first asking and receiving their permission.
- I will respect the church building because it belongs to all of us. I will clean up messes, respect the property of others and treat this place as I would treat my own home.
- I will respect what others have to say by listening when they are talking. I will allow others to speak their ideas and not distract them or take away from their ideas by talking while they are talking.
- I will respect others with my words. I will not use abusive words or profanity, and I will not be overly critical. I also will not gossip about our youth group or others. Our youth group's definition of gossip is saying anything true or false, or rumor that causes others to lower their opinion of the person being talked about. We are only saying positive and encouraging things about others.
- I will respect the group and turn my cell phone off when the youth activities begin because I know that they can distract me and others from learning more about God. And I will not turn them back on again until after the activities are over.
- I will respect others in the way that I dress. I understand that dressing modestly is what is expected of me.
- I will respect myself and my youth group, by using only appropriate displays of affection. There must always be space between myself and the person that I am dating; kissing or too close contact is not appropriate.
- I will respect the safe environment of the youth group by promising that I will never bring any weapons, drugs, alcohol or fireworks with me when I am with our youth group. I will also help to keep a safe environment by not being violent.
- I will respect the leaders and the youth group by participating in all lessons, activities and games. I am committed to attend all youth functions that I am able to and I will arrive on time.

- I will respect myself and our youth group by being truthful and genuine. I will also be accepting of others, knowing that they may come from a different background. I know that God created us as unique individuals, and I will respect that uniqueness in others.
- I will respect those whom we encounter doing our service projects.

Because I am a youth, I understand that I do not have to be responsible for enforcing the rules. I will, however, be an example to others.

I understand that there will be consequences to any inappropriate behavior. Those consequences may include being required to “sit out” from an activity or trip, staying after to talk about my behavior, my parent/guardian being called to come and pick me up at their expense and as a last resort, I could lose my privileges of coming to youth events for a time.

Who Are You!?

What sports do you play?

Where do you go to school?

Do you play an instrument or sing?

What clubs are you in?

If you could have just one of Jesus' miraculous powers what would it be?

What's something the church youth should do?
